

Sequence the Sentences

Can you put the start of the story in the right order?

Cut out the sentences on the next page. Place them in the correct order below.

When you are sure you have the correct order, glue the sentences down.

Challenge Task

Write a sentence to say what you think will happen next in the story.

As the days went by, Morris collected more and more gifts.

Morris took the can home to his nest.

Morris had so many gifts that they went all over the floor.

Some humans threw a can out of their car window.

Morris went to the edge of the wood to look for treasures.

Morris cleaned up the can and put it in his display.

Morris took treasures left by humans after their picnic.

Sequence the Sentences Answers

Some humans threw a can out of their car window.

Morris took the can home to his nest.

Morris cleaned up the can and put it in his display.

Morris went to the edge of the wood to look for treasures.

Morris took treasures left by humans after their picnic.

As the days went by, Morris collected more and more gifts.

Morris had so many gifts that they went all over the floor.

Challenge Task

Write a sentence to say what you think will happen next in the story.

Example answer:

Morris collected so many items that there was not much room to move in the woods and it looked horrible. All the other animals were cross with Morris because he had spoilt their homes. Morris was sorry. Humans came and cleaned up the forest and Morris never made a mess again.