

The Messy Magpie Think, Say, Feel

You are Morris the Magpie. You have just realised that your collection of rubbish is hurting the forest.

- Write one thing you are thinking in the thought bubble.
- Write one thing you might say in the speech bubble.
- Write three words to describe how you were feeling inside the heart.

A large rounded rectangular box with four horizontal lines inside, intended for writing three words to describe how the magpie was feeling.

The Messy Magpie Think, Say, Feel

You are Morris the Magpie. You have just seen what your collection of treasures has done to your friends and their forest homes.

- Write two things that you are thinking in the thought bubble.
- Write two things that you might say in the speech bubble.
- Write three adjectives to describe how you were feeling inside the heart.

The Messy Magpie Think, Say, Feel

You are Morris the Magpie. You have just realised that the treasures you found are not treasures at all and are actually harming the forest! You are trying to understand why the humans left them where they did.

- Write two things that you are thinking in the thought bubble. One must be a statement and one must be a question.
- Write two things that you might say in the speech bubble. One must be a statement and one must be a question.
- Write four adjectives to describe how you were feeling inside the heart.

